HONORING OUR SERVICEMEN AND WOMEN

(Mrs. BLACKBURN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. BLACKBURN. Madam Speaker, this has been quite a week here in the House. And I think that so many of my colleagues have noted how we hear from constituents about how feistily we come to the floor and how we debate and how we discuss the issues and the policies of the day and even tonight as we have stood to honor one of our colleagues who is taking on a new challenge. And I think it is so appropriate, Madam Speaker, that we recognize the fact that we do this because we are free. We are a free people. And we do it because we live in a Nation where men and women choose to sacrifice their lives, their time, their talent to preserve that freedom.

I noticed in The Washington Post today there is a great article about the Iraqi Army, now over 150,000 strong, being trained by American men and women in uniform who have chosen, who have chosen, to serve their Nation.

Madam Speaker, in Tennessee we have the 278th regiment that is on the Iraq-Iran border training many of these new Iraqi military men. And I want to honor them in their service and all of our men and women and say "thank you" and God speed for the good work they do in preserving freedom.

LET US PASS A BUDGET THAT WORKS FOR ALL OF AMERICA

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Madam Speaker, we had quite a trying week.

Many of us see things from a different perspective. I am hoping that we will be able to correct some of the flaws that we found in the debate this week. And particularly I thought it was important to reflect on what kind of budget was just passed in a very close vote, 211 to 214, clearly a divided Congress on whether or not this budget helps any of the Americans that we try to uplift.

This is a budget that cuts Medicaid by $10 billion. This is a budget that protects over $70 billion in tax cuts. This is a budget that will see many veterans hospitals and their services cut. One of the more moving experiences I had was to hear a veteran ask the question, "Do you not care?"

□ 2100

Are we not concerned about the veterans coming back, many of them traumatized, many of them amputees, many of them who have experienced other soldiers or veterans in Afghanistan or Iraq that committed suicide?

We have a chance to do this over again. This conference report, frankly, does not answer the concerns of the American people. I am glad to have voted no. I hope we find it in our hearts to really stand up for the American people who count and pass a budget in the future that works for all of America.

DAVID WILKINS NOMINATED AMBASSADOR TO CANADA

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Madam Speaker, last night President Bush nominated his long time friend South Carolina Speaker of the House David Wilkins as America's new Ambassador to Canada. While I have mixed feelings of the loss of Speaker Wilkins from public service in South Carolina, I am thrilled he will now serve all Americans as the representative to our sister nation, which is America's largest trading partner in the world.

David Wilkins and his wife Susan are the perfect team to represent America. Susan is competent and gracious and will establish the Ambassador's residence as a center of warm, Southern hospitality.
